CIVIL DISCOURSE IN AN UNCIVIL AGE: How to Love Your Neighbor Even During Elections. With Jan Akire

Jan is the author is four books on spirituality, including her newly released Seeking Christ Through Friendship. She is a retreat leader, an international speaker, and a certified catechist in the Archdiocese of Seattle.

"My focus will be on loving one's neighbors by listening to them—to focus on understanding rather than on getting someone to change their mind and think the way I do. It's a step toward love"

With today's polarizing opinions and lightening internet speed for posing whatever we think or feel, having a civil discussion on any topic—politics, religion, economics, social justice or anything—can seem impossible! Explore how to engage in challenging conversations, how to love your neighbor by listening the way that God listens to each of us on November 10th, 11:30am-1pm at the St. Anne Assembly Hall on Queen Anne. Call 206-282-0223 for more information.

GOD SO LOVED HE GAVE

FROM A HEART OF GRATITUDE WE GIVE OUR

TREASURE

If you haven't already decided on your parish stewardship commitment, please prayerfully consider God's promises and make your pledge. You may return it in the collection basket, to the parish office, or through the mail.

What is the right amount to give? When you are at peace about the size of your gift – when you do not find yourself making excuses for its size (either too big or too small) and you know in your heart that you have been completely honest with yourself and God – then your gift is the proper size.

Please return your parish stewardship commitment card today.

Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

Prayer for Vocations

O Father, you desire all of us to be happy.
Stir up the grace of a religious vocation in the hearts of many men and women.
Grant to them the willingness and generosity to give of themselves,their lives, their time and their talents to the service of Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord and Savior, and to His Holy Church.

May more men and women go forth as priests, deacons, brothers and sisters to bring the truths of our Catholic faith to all others so that soon they, too, may know You better and love You more... and serving You, be truly happy.

Amen.

DATES: NOVEMBER 3-9, 2019

During the first week of November, the U.S. bishops recognize Vocations Awareness Week. For those discerning their vocation, the USCCB has a wealth of resources at http://www.usccb.org/beliefs-and-teachings/vocations/index.cfm.

Tips for Building a Domestic Church

Begin praying as a family and reading from Scripture daily, certainly before meals, but also first thing in the morning or before bed. Find a time that works for your family. Use the liturgy of the Church as a model for prayer, and try to include heartfelt unstructured prayer as well.

- Have a crucifix in a prominent place in the home, and in every bedroom.
- Make the Sacraments a regular celebration – take the whole family to Confession and Mass!
- Begin family traditions based on the seasons celebrated in the liturgical calendar.
- Make worshiping God a priority. Never miss Mass, even while traveling – go to: www.MassTimes.org to find a church near you!
- Teach stewardship and charity to your children, through word and example.
- Demonstrate love for your spouse, your children, your neighbors, and the world. Remind your children that they are loved by God and have been given gifts to serve others.
- Talk freely about the presence of God in the joys and sorrows of your life.
- Welcome into your home and support priests, brothers, sisters, deacons, and lay ministers in the Church.
- Participate in the lay ministries and activities of your parish community.
- For more ideas on how to build your home as a Domestic Church, go to: www.domestic-church.com or visit The Family Fully Alive, sponsored by the Knights of Columbus.
